A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to Article 1 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana concerning the definition of marriage.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Indiana, which was agreed to by the One Hundred Fourteenth General Assembly and referred to this General Assembly for reconsideration and agreement, is agreed to by this the One Hundred Fifteenth General Assembly of the State of Indiana.

SECTION 2. ARTICLE 1 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF INDIANA IS AMENDED BY ADDING A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS: Section 38. (a) Marriage in Indiana consists only of the union of one man and one woman.

(b) This Constitution or any other Indiana law may not be construed to require that marital status or the legal incidents of marriage be conferred upon unmarried couples or groups.

RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 26

Representatives Bauer, Niezgodski, and Dvorak introduced House Concurrent Resolution 26:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the South Bend Washington High School girls basketball team.

Whereas, On Saturday, March 3, 2007, at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis, the South Bend Washington High School girls basketball team avenged last year's loss in the Class 4A state championship game by becoming the first girls basketball team in the South Bend Community School Corporation to win a state title;

Whereas, South Bend Washington defeated Columbus East by a score of 84 - 64;

Whereas, The Panthers, champions of the Northern Indiana Conference, reached their goal by finishing the season with 28 straight victories after losing the first game of the year;

Whereas, In a fast paced, up-tempo game, South Bend Washington's offense was too much for Columbus East;

Whereas, Sophomore guard Skylar Diggins led the way for the Panthers with 27 points, 17 rebounds, six assists, five steals, and three blocked shots, setting a new rebounding record;

Whereas, Senior Ashley Varner scored 24 points and Katelyn Boocher added 10 rebounds;

Whereas, The Washington Panthers set several new records during the championship game: most points in a game, 84; most points in a half, 48 in the second half; most points in a quarter, 30 in the third quarter; most field goals attempted, 77; most field goals made, 34; most rebounds by one team, 52; and most blocked shots, 11;

Whereas, Katelyn Boocher was named the winner of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award, presented annually to a senior who has demonstrated excellence in mental attitude, scholarship, leadership, and athletic ability;

Whereas, Head coach Marilyn Coddens was named the 2006 Northern Indiana Conference Coach of the Year and the Metro Coach of the Year; and

Whereas, Excellence in any endeavor and determination to reach a specific goal deserve special recognition: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the South Bend Washington High School girls basketball team on its Class 4A state basketball championship and wishes the team members success in all their future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to all team members, team managers, head coach Marilyn Coddens, assistant coaches Don Coddens, Maurice Scott, Jose Robles, and Lannie Jones, athletic director Patrick J. Mackowiak, principal George W. McCullough, Jr., and superintendent Dr. Robert Zimmerman.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Broden.

House Concurrent Resolution 27

Representatives Hinkle, Behning, and Bardon introduced House Concurrent Resolution 27:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the Ben Davis High School Dads Organization.

Whereas, The Ben Davis High School Dads Organization was recently awarded the Mayor's Character Achievement Award for its contributions to and involvement in education at Ben Davis High School;

Whereas, The Mayor's Character Achievement Award was presented to the Ben Davis High School Dads Organization for its efforts in urging fathers to take an active role in the school community by helping advance student achievement;

Whereas, The mission statement of the Ben David Dads Organization is to "provide a support service for Ben Davis High School through collaboration with parents, school personnel and the community, as we challenge students to reach their greatest potential";

Whereas, The Ben Davis Dads Organization was established in 2004 and consists of 37 fathers who last year devoted more than 2,100 volunteer hours;

Whereas, The role of the Ben Davis Dads is multifaceted and includes mentor, advocate, role model, and friend;

Whereas, The Ben Davis Dads assist in academic, fine arts, and extracurricular areas;

Whereas, Members of the Ben Davis High School Dads Organization are called upon to attend school functions, assist in events that need extra supervision, help monitor the school building when needed, participate in community service projects, mentor, and serve as role model; and

Whereas, The Ben Davis Dads have exhibited their willingness to serve in all areas of Ben Davis High School and Vocational Centers helping to foster a true learning community: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the members of the Ben Davis High School Dads Organization on receiving the Mayor's Character Achievement Award and thanks them for their hours of service to the students of Ben Davis High School. Their dedication helps develop an atmosphere conducive to learning and maintain an open line of communication between children and adults. They serve as outstanding role models for the young people of our state.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Jim Wilson, Reverend Anthony Bondon, Mike Morrow, and Dave Thomas, members of the Ben Davis High School Dads Executive Board.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsors: Senators Delph and M. Young.

House Concurrent Resolution 28

Representative Foley introduced House Concurrent

Resolution 28:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the members of the Martinsville High School girls softball team on the occasion of their victory in the 2006 Indiana High School Athletic Association Class 4A State Softball Championship.

Whereas, The Martinsville High School girls softball team earned its second consecutive Class 4A State Softball Championship with a 1 - 0 victory over top ranked Chesterton High School, becoming the first team in the history of the Indiana High School Athletic Association to earn back-to-back state championships;

Whereas, The championship game featured two of the state's top pitchers and was a low scoring event;

Whereas, Alaina Zloty scored the only run off a Jessica Breeden stand-up double in the top of the third;

Whereas, The Artesians advanced to the Class 4A final game with a victory over Kokomo;

Whereas, After establishing a 2 - 0 lead over Kokomo in the top of the first inning, the Artesians enjoyed a seven run third inning en route to an 11 - 0 victory;

Whereas, The championship victory capped off an amazing season for the Artesians;

Whereas, Catcher Jessica Breeden was named the 2006 Miss Softball by the Indiana Coaches of Girls Sports Association;

Whereas, In addition to being named Miss Softball, Jessica was named to the first-team All-State team by the Indiana Coaches of Girls Sports Association (ICGSA) and played in the ICGSA North-South All-Star Game where she hit the game winning grand slam for the South squad in Game 1; and

Whereas, The Martinsville High School girls softball team stands as an example of what can come of hard work and discipline: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the members and coaches of the Martinsville High School girls softball team on their victory in the 2006 IHSAA Class 4A State Softball Championship and wishes them success in their future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit copies of this resolution to team members Leah Hoffman, Jessica Breeden, Elizabeth Gwaltney, Lynn Zloty, Mikala Trimble, Chelsea Scott, Allison Baldrige, Jodi Porter, Logan Lucas, Abby Calloway, Alaina Zloty, Ali Roddy, Tracy Michel, Monica Schwab, Jessica Stoner, Brittany Pruitt, Sarah Ezell, Emily Sullivan, Melissa Daniels, Jordan Baldrige, Megan Michel; head coach Ken Rhoden; assistant coaches Rob Rhoden, Nicki Ewing, Sara Currier, Katie Baughn, Randy McKinney, and John Roddy; athletic director Don Lipps; principal Don Alkire; and superintendent Ron Furniss.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Bray.

The Speaker yielded the gavel to the Speaker Pro Tempore, Representative Dobis.

House Concurrent Resolution 29

Representatives Dodge, Borrer, Davis, GiaQuinta, Knollman, Pond, Ripley, Saunders, Moses, Pflum, and Bardon introduced House Concurrent Resolution 29:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the Indiana department of transportation to designate old U.S. 27 as a national historical road.

Whereas, Old U.S. 27 has contributed a significant economic and social benefit to the state of Indiana by serving as a major north to south artery for commerce from northern Michigan to southern Florida, including a 175 mile stretch along Indiana's eastern border;

Whereas, These economic and social benefits contributed to the growth and prosperity of the state of Indiana;

Whereas, The designation of old U.S. 27 as a national historic road would increase tourism and lead to increased economic development; and

Whereas, There is a great need to preserve and promote old U.S. 27 due to the important role it has played in our heritage: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly supports the effort to designate old U.S. 27 as a historical road that will promote tourism and economic development opportunities in Indiana.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the commissioner of the Indiana department of transportation.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsors: Senators Ford, Kruse, Meeks, Nugent, and Paul.

House Resolution 20

Representative Pelath introduced House Resolution 20:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION memorializing Roger J. McKee.

Whereas, Roger J. McKee was born in Michigan City, Indiana, on February 15, 1927, and died on December 12, 2006;

Whereas, On September 8, 1948, Roger J. McKee married his wife Betty, who preceded him in death;

Whereas, Roger J. McKee, a World War II veteran and member of Skwiat American Legion Post 451, was a member of Michigan City's sanitary district board, the postmaster for 27 years, and a member and president of the Michigan City Common Council;

Whereas, Roger J. McKee was a dedicated member and leader of numerous boards and commissions, including the Michigan City Economic Development Commission, the Duneland Health Foundation, the Memorial Hospital Board of Directors, Lakeshore Bank, the Michigan City Library Board, the LaPorte County Tourism Board, the Michigan City Redevelopment Commission, and the Marquette High School Foundation;

Whereas, Roger J. McKee was recognized throughout the community for his tireless efforts toward the betterment of race relations and a devoted member of Queen of All Saints Church; and

Whereas, Roger J. McKee devoted his life to serving the people of Michigan City and will always be remembered as a tireless public servant, a visionary community leader, an advocate of human rights, a dogged proponent of civil rights, and one who had the deepest love for Michigan City: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives wishes to express its deepest condolences to the McKee family and to honor the life, work, and achievements of Roger J.

McKee.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Roger J. McKee's sons Robert, Patrick, and Michael McKee and daughters Beth Ann Nieman and Eliane "Ellie" Johnson.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 21

Representative Pelath introduced House Resolution 21:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION memorializing Joe W. Hawkins.

Whereas, Joe W. Hawkins was born November 1, 1937, in Birmingham, Alabama, to Jake and Ruby Hawkins;

Whereas, Joe W. Hawkins married Maxine, his devoted and loving wife of 40 years, on March 30, 1966;

Whereas, Joe W. Hawkins was a lifelong servant of his community, a respected leader in business and government, and a tireless advocate of the proposition that all men are created equal;

Whereas, Joe W. Hawkins, a graduate of Purdue University and a veteran of the United States Air Force, served as a probation officer in LaPorte County before being appointed as the first director of the Michigan City Human Rights Commission;

Whereas, Joe W. Hawkins worked for 19 years as the human resource director of Weil-McLain in Michigan City where he helped countless local residents gain new economic opportunities; and

Whereas, Joe W. Hawkins was a devoted husband, brother, father, and grandfather who will be remembered as a man who always had the courage to speak the truth and worked tirelessly to create a better life for African Americans in his community: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives if the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives expresses its deepest sympathy to the Hawkins family and recognizes the life, achievements, and good works of Joe W. Hawkins.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to his wife Maxine, sons Devin Hawkins and Brian Metcalf, and daughters Deborah Fox, Desiree Nichols, and Delora Hawkins.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 22

Representative T. Harris introduced House Resolution 22:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Jim Spurgeon.

Whereas, Jim Spurgeon has been recognized by the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) as the National Rookie of the Year for his outstanding service to the 1,150 members of the Central Indiana small business community;

Whereas, Jim Spurgeon gained his knowledge of small business through 25 years of experience as the owner of two independent businesses;

Whereas, Jim Spurgeon is actively involved in the Central Indiana region and was instrumental in developing an Area Action Council in Marian and Anderson, Indiana, that worked closely with elected representatives on small business issues in the Indiana General Assembly;

Whereas, Jim Spurgeon also helped to develop plans for a meeting between seniors in Grant County high schools and their elected representatives in an effort to instill knowledge of and interest in civic affairs in the next generation of Hoosier leaders;

Whereas, Jim Spurgeon has served as an elected City Councilman in Gas City, Indiana, where his business knowledge has often proved to be an extremely important asset to the leaders of this community; and

Whereas, Jim Spurgeon selflessly gives his time and energy to help other owners of small businesses throughout the seven counties of Central Indiana: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives expresses its gratitude for the time Jim Spurgeon has dedicated to the small business community in Central Indiana and wishes him continued success in all his future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Jim Spurgeon and his family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 23

Representatives Bauer, Fry, Dvorak, and Niezgodski introduced House Resolution 23:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Les Fox.

Whereas, Les Fox will soon retire from his position as president and chief executive officer of REAL Services, a firm he has guided since its creation;

Whereas, Les Fox has devoted his life to helping the less privileged and elderly in our state receive services and assistance that they might otherwise have been denied;

Whereas, Les Fox grew up in Milwaukee during the Great Depression, and the human suffering he witnessed during this time gave him a deep-rooted sense of responsibility to help others;

Whereas, At the age of 18, Les moved to South Bend to work at Studebaker;

Whereas, It was here that his life of public service began when he was selected as a member of the bargaining committee and as Vice President of United Auto Workers Local #5;

Whereas, When the Studebaker plant closed in 1964, Les Fox was hired as president of Project ABLE (Ability Based on Long Experience), which was developed to assist older workers displaced by the plant shutdown;

Whereas, Les ran Project ABLE until 1965 when he was hired by the Regional Office of Economic Opportunity in Atlanta, Georgia;

Whereas, In 1966 Les returned to Indiana and established REAL Services, an agency whose original purpose was to help older people work with social service agencies;

Whereas, Under his leadership, REAL Services has expanded to include programs that provide services to the elderly, disabled, and low income families in five counties;

Whereas, Les Fox has been recognized at the local, state, and federal level for his many contributions and services to his community, and was awarded by Indiana governors the Sagamore of the Wabash in 1986, 1991, and 1997; and

Whereas, Les Fox has often stated that he believes the purpose of man is to serve his fellow man; Les Fox practices what he preaches: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives congratulates Les Fox on the occasion of his retirement and thanks him for his many contributions and endless hours of service to the state of Indiana and its citizens.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Les Fox.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 24

Representative Burton introduced House Resolution 24:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Paul and Shelley Shoopman.

Whereas, Paul Shoopman began working in the construction business in 1971 when he was a teenager;

Whereas, Eager to learn from one of the biggest production homebuilders in the country, Paul Shoopman, an Indianapolis native and a graduate of Emmerich Manual High School, subcontracted with Ryan Homes for three years;

Whereas, Paul and Shelley Shoopman began The Dura Companies in 1974 and by 2004 had built more than 8,000 homes in approximately 200 neighborhoods;

Whereas, The company quickly grew to become the fifth largest builder in metropolitan Indianapolis;

Whereas, In recognition of his accomplishments and contributions to the building industry, Paul Shoopman received the prestigious award of National Entrepreneur of the Year in the residential category from Ernst & Young and the Golden Spike from the Builders Association of Greater Indianapolis;

Whereas, After selling The Dura Companies, Paul Shoopman founded the Indianapolis-based Indiana Land Development Corporation (ILDC) specializing in identifying, planning, acquiring, and assisting with the development of land parcels for the residential, retail, office, and industrial markets in central Indiana;

Whereas, Throughout their careers, Paul and Shelley Shoopman have always made philanthropy a priority, creating the Carl Asaro 9/11 Scholarship Fund for children of firefighters, police officers, and paramedics, serving as a Godfather for St. Mary's Child Care Center, acting as a corporate sponsor of the family values statuary in Plainfield's Friendship Gardens town park, sponsoring the "Lassie League" girls' softball program in Center Grove, and contributing to the Boys and Girls Club of Zionsville;

Whereas, Paul and Shelley Shoopman's commitment to education is highlighted by their contribution to the Indianapolis Public Schools Foundation's Reading Recognition program and by their contribution of computer equipment to the Oaks Academy, a private, inner-city, kindergarten through grade 9 school; and

Whereas, Throughout the years, Paul and Shelley Shoopman have dedicated their business lives to providing an outstanding product at a fair price and giving Hoosiers more ways to live up to their potential: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives recognizes the outstanding efforts of Paul and Shelley Shoopman in establishing themselves as humanitarians whose efforts have touched the lives of countless Hoosiers of all ages.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Paul and Shelley Shoopman.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 45, sponsored by Representatives Pelath and Klinker:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the Legislative Council to assign and direct an interim or statutory committee to study issues pertaining to the imposition of the death penalty on mentally ill individuals.

Whereas, Mental illness does not preclude the imposition of the death penalty in the State of Indiana;

Whereas, Various aspects of the death penalty continue to evoke constitutional scrutiny in the highest courts of this state and country;

Whereas, The issue of mental illness and the death penalty is an increasingly active topic of discussion in legislatures and courts throughout the United States;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser has been a tireless champion of civil liberties and the rights of all our citizens;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser has been a staunch and tireless opponent of the death penalty;

Whereas, Senator Bowser has authored legislation which successfully precluded the imposition of the death penalty on mentally retarded persons;

Whereas, Senator Bowser has also authored legislation which successfully precluded the imposition of the death penalty on individuals less than 18 years of age;

Whereas, in recognition of Senator Bowser's efforts on these issues, the legislature should study the issues surrounding the imposition of the death penalty on mentally ill individuals: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana State Senate hereby urges the Legislative Council to assign and direct an interim or statutory committee to study issues pertaining to the imposition of the death penalty on mentally ill individuals.

SECTION 2. That the committee, if assigned by Legislative Council, should operate under the direction of the Council and be known as the Bowser Commission.

SECTION 3. The Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Legislative Council.

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Joe J. Webb for his years of public service.

Whereas, Joe J. Webb has served his community, county, and state in a dignified and professional manner since 1962;

Whereas, Mr. Webb has helped guide the Clark County REMC since his election to its Board of Directors in 1973;

Whereas, During Mr. Webb's tenure as a leader of the Clark County REMC, that organization diligently fulfilled its mission of providing reliable electricity and services to its members;

Whereas, In recognition of his leadership abilities, the Indiana Statewide Association of Rural Electric Cooperatives elected him President;

Whereas, Mr. Webb held this distinguished position from 1987 to 2006, a term of nineteen years;

Whereas, Mr. Webb has also served as a member of the Action Committee for Rural Electrification and the Friends of Rural Electrification;

Whereas, Mr. Webb was also a valued member of the New Washington Optimist Club, of which he was President, the Center for Lay Ministries Board, Leadership Southern Indiana, Loyal Order of Moose, Indiana Farm Bureau, and the Indiana

Alcohol and Tobacco Commission; and

Whereas, Mr. Webb found the time to serve as a church elder, a State Barber Inspector, develop a career at Navistar International Corporation and raise a family of three children: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana State Senate hereby honors Joe J. Webb for his years of public service.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Joe J. Webb and Glen R. Reis.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 51

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 51, sponsored by Representative Dembowski:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Angela Boyle for winning the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award.

Whereas, Oregon Davis senior forward Angela Boyle was named the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award winner for Class A girls basketball. Recipients of this award are recognized for their excellence in mental attitude, scholarship, leadership, and high school athletics;

Whereas, Angela Boyle ranks among the top 10 students in her class with a 3.96 cumulative grade point average. On the basketball court, Angela contributed 351 points and helped secure the 2007 Class A State Championship for the Oregon-Davis Bobcats;

Whereas, In addition to basketball, Angela Boyle has been a member of the National Honor Society, an after-school tutor, and a youth club volunteer at her church. She has also given generously of her time assisting with the Plymouth Youth Girls Basketball camps and volunteering at the St. Joseph Medical Center; and

Whereas, Angela Boyle plans to further her education, studying physical therapy in college. Her dedication to excellence in the classroom, on the basketball court, and in her community is worthy of special recognition: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Angela Boyle on her selection as the 2005-2006 Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award Winner for Class A girls basketball.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Angela Boyle and her family, Principal Gregory Briles, and Coach Terry Minix.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 52

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 52, sponsored by Representative Dembowski:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the Oregon-Davis High School girls basketball team for winning the 2007 Class A State Championship.

Whereas, The Oregon-Davis High School girls basketball team concluded their regular season and sectional play with a record of twenty-one wins and three losses to advance into post season competition;

Whereas, The Oregon-Davis Bobcats defeated the West Central Trojans by a score of 65-34 and the Fort Wayne Canterbury Cavaliers by a score of 63-59 in regional tournament play. Thereafter, the Bobcats dominated the Lapel Bulldogs by a score of 77-47 in a semistate match up which earned them the right to compete for the Indiana State High School Class A Championship;

Whereas, In the Class A State Championship Game, the Oregon-Davis Bobcats met the Wood Memorial Trojans. Led by 19 points from freshman Gabi Minix, daughter of coach Terry Minix, the Bobcats achieved a memorable 54-46 victory in Conesco Fieldhouse; and

Whereas, Throughout the season, the Oregon-Davis High School girls basketball team has rallied around the memory of their friend with the cheer, "Play like Jess today!" We congratulate the Bobcats for winning the Class A State Championship and wish them continued success in the future: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly honors the Oregon-Davis High School girls basketball team for winning the 2007 Class A State Championship.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Coach Terry Minix and each member of the championship team.
